Aleksei Gaile

Software Developer at Wisercat. Open for new opportunities.
Tallinn

Summary

I am a Java Developer aiming to create quality products and constantly evolving.

I have experience in developing complex web applications, optimizing existing software solutions.

During work participated in three projects, where solved various tasks on the front-end and back-end, and also helped other developers. Prefer to work with the back-end. Java forever!

The motive for changing jobs is the desire for professional development and low workload.
